JOINS

Create tables:

1. Employee ( empid, name, deptid, salary, city)
2. Department( deptid, deptname, location)

Queries:

1. Display employee names along with their department names using INNER JOIN.
2. Display employee ID, employee name and department ID from both tables.
3. Display employee names and department locations.
4. Display employees working in the IT department.
5. Display employees working in the HR department.
6. Display employee names, salaries and department names.
7. Display employees who belong to the Finance department.
8. Display all employee names and department names using LEFT JOIN.
9. Display all department names and employee names using RIGHT JOIN.
10. Display employees working in Bangalore along with their department names.
11. Display employees whose salary is greater than ₹50,000 along with their department names.
12. Display employees who belong to either IT or HR departments.
13. Display all employees, including those who are not assigned to any department.
14. Display departments that do not have any employees.
15. Display the total number of employees in each department.
16. Display the average salary of employees in each department.
17. Display the maximum salary in each department.
18. Display departments having more than one employee.
19. Display employees whose department location is different from their city.
20. Display employee names and department names in descending order of salary.